DEAR EVAN HANSEN

Saturday, November 7, 2026 ~$100 - Suncoast Theater ~ Hudson, FL

Bus Leaves at 10:00 am

If you haven't heard of “Dear Evan Hansen” you must see it, feel it, and understand it. It's the story of a teenager who feels alone and unseen. I'm sure many years ago when we were in school, we might have known someone like that. Could've been one of us.

The production is about Evan, a lonely, socially anxious teenager desperate to connect with the people around him. Connor writes self-affirmation letters to himself. One of Evans' self-affirmation letters gets into the hands of Connor Murphy, who later dies by suicide with the letter in his pocket. Connor's grieving parents assume Evan was Connor's friend. The lie continues to build as Evan lets the misunderstanding grow, eventually fabricating emails and memories of their nonexistent friendship.

Much of it is painfully current with our teenagers. Loneliness can be corrosive. Mental health struggles cannot be solved by telling someone to reach out. In today's world a single post can turn a private tragedy into a public movement overnight. The show questions about connection, attention, and online identity.

With soaring music and moments of humor, heart, and honest reflection, Dear Evan Hansen is a moving Broadway experience that celebrates the way we lift one another up – and how every family, chosen or found, can change your life.
